Welcome

We are delighted to launch the second year of A New Direction's Primary Arts programme, offering free, high quality, inspiring arts, cultural and creative opportunities in and out of school for children and staff in London's state primary schools and primary SEND settings.

The entire Primary Arts programme is offered free of charge to schools, helping to unlock the creative potential, cultural capital and skills of school staff and children. The programme offers opportunities to support curriculum development, wellbeing, confidence, personal interest, and professional development in a time of increasing pressures on schools and their staff. It is designed with access and inclusion at its heart, and we hope that all primary settings will find something of interest to them and their pupils.

Booking for Primary Arts opens on Wednesday 10 September. The programme has five strands, four of which are included in this brochure, and the activity begins from November 2025. The fifth is the Cultural Education Leadership Programme, a year-long programme for teachers delivered in partnership with the Centre for Educational Leadership at UCL Institute of Education. This will reopen for applications in April 2026.

The In-Schools Touring Programme offers performances and workshops for pupils at school, with accompanying teacher CPD and classroom resources, including books and creative materials. Go & See gives free access to cultural experiences in venues across London for pupils in winter 2025 and summer 2026. Our Masterclasses on creative approaches to reader development for teachers are delivered in partnership with the Centre for Literacy in Primary Education, and our hands-on twilight Come & Try workshops with the Crafts Council explore a variety of craft disciplines and are suitable for all school staff. These activities reflect the breadth and quality of London's incredible cultural offering, and we would like to thank all the cultural organisations who are partnering with us on project delivery.

Primary Arts is generously supported by The City of London Corporation City Educational Trust Fund (29084), a City of London Corporation charity, and we are incredibly grateful for their continued support at a time of significant pressure on the education and cultural sectors in London.

Primary Arts was created in response to the release in March 2023 of the Gulbenkian report The Arts in Schools – Foundations for the Future, a reflective piece that articulates the various barriers that have discouraged and disallowed cultural education and arts in schools to thrive. We hope that this three-year programme will be one of many that start to address the findings of this report. We are very excited by this opportunity to create new cultural and creative opportunities for primary school children and staff across London, and we hope you can join us.

Steve Moffitt, MBE
Chief Executive Officer, A New Direction

About the Programme

A New Direction's Primary Arts programme aims to increase access to high quality, inspiring arts, cultural and creative opportunities for children and staff in London's state primary schools and primary SEND settings.

Delivered in partnership with a range of cultural organisations, this menu of free opportunities for schools aims to unlock the creative potential, cultural capital and skills of school staff and children, offering opportunities to support curriculum development, wellbeing, confidence, personal interest and development. If your school is on its Artsmark journey, the programme may also help support your Artsmark aims.

In this brochure, you can find information about the following strands of the programme:

IN-SCHOOLS TOURING: a choice of ten arts performances and in-class workshops for your pupils, plus teacher CPD, a curated box of reading books and a selection of creative materials and resources.

GO & SEE: tickets for your pupils to experience theatre, film, museums, heritage and the visual arts.

MASTERCLASSES: CPD days exploring a range of creative approaches to literacy and reader development for teachers.

COME & TRY: a series of creative practical twilights for all school staff.

Bookings

Each section of the brochure includes information about how to book or express your interest. All bookings are managed through our online booking platform.

Each person booking to attend a Masterclass or Come & Try event must register themselves on the booking platform under their school profile. Places cannot be booked on the behalf of others. For the In-Schools Touring programme and Go & See, you will need to specify a lead teacher to liaise with us.

The entirety of the programme is offered free of charge, though charges may be made for late cancellations or no-shows.

Who can take part?

Primary Arts is open to all state primary mainstream and special schools in London. The programme is designed to include children in all primary year groups from Reception to Year 6.

Your school must be in a London borough to be eligible for the programme.

Schools and individuals can take part in more than one strand of the programme (but only one touring booking can be made per school per year).

Go & See is available to all eligible schools, but ticket numbers are limited.

Masterclasses are open to qualified teachers currently working at any level in eligible schools.

Come & Try twilights are open to any member of staff currently working in eligible schools, including teachers, Teaching Assistants, support staff, and admin staff.

An access budget is available to support engagement in this programme, for example for transport, BSL interpretation or other costs.

For the In-Schools Touring Programme and Go & See, if we receive more booking requests than we can accept onto the programme, schools will be selected based on a range of criteria including level of need, geography, previous engagement in Primary Arts and the capacity of the programme itself. The Masterclasses and Come & Try programmes are offered on a first come, first served basis and we will open waiting lists for fully-booked sessions.

If you have any questions about the programme, please see our FAQs. If these don't answer your questions, email us at schools@anewdirection.org.uk

Inclusion

This section provides inclusion information for SEND settings and for mainstream settings with large numbers of pupils with additional needs.

We aim for the full programme to be accessible to and supportive of Deaf, disabled and neurodiverse people, whether they are pupils or adults.

A New Direction believes in the talents and potential of all children and young people. We challenge the structural and systemic inequalities that influence children and young people's lives and opportunities and prioritise those that experience these. Our I Am Network for educators working with Deaf, disabled and neurodivergent children and young people in London's schools and specialist settings has been running for over 10 years, and our I Am Festival for Deaf, disabled and neurodiverse children and young people celebrated its 10th anniversary in 2025.

Our experience of delivering these programmes informs the design and delivery of Primary Arts. Our partners include disability-led organisations and practitioners with lived experience. We also consult with SEND professionals, and we strive to ensure that the full programme is accessible to all.

Inclusion focus:

- We only work with organisations whose values and approaches around inclusion are aligned with our own.
- We work with a schools advisory group to ensure that we listen to what schools need. This group includes staff from SEND settings and SENDCos from mainstream primaries.
- We include access and inclusion information throughout this brochure to help schools find the offer that is right for them and their pupils.
- An access budget is available to support schools working with pupils with SEND to engage in the programme – for example, to support with the cost of minibus hire for trips or to bring additional support staff.
- All out-of-school activity for staff and pupils is delivered in accessible venues.
- The access budget can also be used to support staff participation in CPD.

All five strands of Primary Arts are designed to work for mainstream and SEND settings.

For Pupils

The IN-SCHOOLS TOURING PROGRAMME brings a cultural organisation into your school to deliver a show and workshops for one year group of children. We also offer twilight staff CPD in school beforehand, and provide high quality materials, books and resources.

Programme adjustments

- For SEND settings with small class sizes, we may be able to offer the show and workshops to more than one year group.
- Shows and workshops can be adjusted to meet pupil needs (e.g. shorter, quieter, simpler, more sensory).
- Organisations bring an access and sensory toolkit with them, including fidget toys and ear defenders for pupils who might need them.
- Organisations are supported to co-plan with all schools before delivery takes place, so that they have a good understanding of your pupils and their needs.

Inclusion

Our approach

- We discuss organisations' values and approaches around inclusion as part of our selection process each year to ensure they align with our own.
- Organisations working with us are supported by an Access & Inclusion Adviser to ensure their offer works for SEND settings.
- Everyone coming into schools attends an onboarding session that includes a focus on access and inclusion.
- Our Access & Inclusion Adviser will support in-school delivery if needed.

The GO & SEE programme offers schools free trips to a range of cultural venues. Schools can book for a year group but can also choose to work with a smaller group if they prefer. The programme is delivered in two seasons, winter (December) and summer (June/July).

Programme adjustments

- For SEND settings with small class sizes, we may be able to offer the trip to more than one year group.
- Many partner venues offer specific sessions or relaxed performances for SEND settings. These are clearly flagged in the programme brochure.
- Our access budget is available to SEND settings to support additional costs such as travel or additional support staff.

For staff

The three programme strands aimed at school staff are designed to support professionals working in any primary setting. All sessions are delivered in accessible venues, and we have an access budget available to support participants if needed.

The Cultural Education Leadership Programme focusses on teachers developing leadership skills in any type of setting. Each participant completes a Leadership for Change research project, choosing their own area of focus to support their own learning and development and that of their pupils.

Our MASTERCLASSES focus on creative approaches to reader development at all levels and in all settings.

Our COME & TRY sessions are mainly focused on staff wellbeing. They also provide a range of practical craft approaches that can be used in the classroom.

Where relevant, we have used the following symbol to identify information that SEND settings may find useful throughout the brochure:

If you have any questions about access and inclusion in the Primary Arts programme, please email us at schools@anewdirection.org.uk.

IN-SCHOOLS TOURING

In-Schools Touring

The Primary Arts In-Schools Touring programme brings high quality arts experiences into your school through performances and workshops for pupils, supported by teacher CPD and a range of additional resources.

Ten organisations are working with us to deliver the programme; their offers are outlined on the pages that follow. Activity in schools will take place in Spring 2 (February/March) 2026.

Participating schools receive:

- A performance (or experience) lasting around 1 hour, for all classes in one year group.
- An in-class workshop lasting 45 minutes to 1 hour, for each class in the same year group, that further explores the artform, themes and curriculum areas linked to the performance.
- A teacher twilight CPD session lasting 1 to 1.5 hours, held in your school during the four weeks prior to the performance. This will support preparation, whole-school engagement, and teacher and pupil learning.
- A range of resources to support communication and learning about the performance, including information for pupils, staff and families, and classroom activities.
- A box of creative materials worth around £250 to support creative classroom activities.
- Booklists linked to the programme, curated by the Centre for Literacy in Primary Education.
- A set of books worth around £150 to support reading for pleasure linked to the programme.

Access & Inclusion

Each offer is suitable for at least one Key Stage and can be adapted to work for pupils with additional needs whether in mainstream or SEND settings. Where needed, we will liaise with your school to ensure that the programme is inclusive for all your participating pupils.

Inclusion adaptations for each offer are flagged using this symbol:

If you need more information about inclusion, please contact us by emailing schools@anewdirection.org.uk.

Eligibility

Primary Arts is open to all state primary mainstream and special schools in London. The programme is designed to include children in all primary year groups from Reception to Year 6. Your school must be in a London borough to be eligible for the programme.

If your school or a member of your school staff is participating in another area of the Primary Arts programme, you are still eligible to make a booking request for this strand of the programme.

How to Make a Booking Request

Only one In-Schools Touring booking will be considered per school per year.

There are places available for 100 schools on the In-Schools Touring programme this year. We will prioritise schools that have not previously benefitted from this programme strand. If you participated in the In-Schools Touring programme in 2023/24 or 2024/25, you may not be allocated a place on the programme this year. However, you are still welcome to submit a booking request.

Please read the offer descriptions carefully on the pages that follow, consider your school's needs and interests, and identify your first and second choice of offer. Each description includes year group suitability and inclusion information. Please ensure the offer you are interested in is suitable for the year group you would like to take part.

When you are ready to make a booking request, please log in to the booking platform, select In-Schools Touring, and complete the booking request form. All booking requests must be submitted by 5pm on Friday 3 October 2025.

The form asks for practical information as well as date availability and should take around 10 to 15 minutes to complete. Once you have submitted the booking request form, we will contact you by Wednesday 15 October 2025 to let you know whether we are able to offer your school a place on the programme, and move to your booking forward, where relevant.

Please note that while the In-Schools Touring programme is free of charge to schools, we may charge a fee of up to £1,000 for cancellations with less than three weeks' notice (excluding school holidays).

If you have any questions about Primary Arts In-Schools Touring, please email schools@anewdirection.org.uk using 'Primary Arts: In-Schools Touring' in the subject line.

Arvon: Creative Writing Day

Fun and inspiring creative writing workshops led by professional writers, suitable for all abilities.

Arvon

Arvon is the UK's Home of Creative Writing, offering inspiring residential courses and workshops for schools. Since 1968, we've helped young people find their voice through writing. Authors like Emma Carroll and Lemn Sissay began their journeys with Arvon. Give your pupils the chance to discover their creative spark.

Arvon: Creative Writing Day

Key Stages:

Key Stage 2, SEND

Relevant areas of the National Curriculum:

English, particularly writing and speaking, wellbeing, developing a growth mindset, enrichment activities, raising attainment in speaking and listening.

About the show

Arvon is all about encouraging people to see themselves as writers. We believe writing creatively supports children to grow in confidence, improve writing skills and boost wellbeing.

Your school will be partnered with professional writers for the day, who will perform their own work and support pupils to develop and perform theirs. The show will inspire pupils by lifting their written words off the page and bringing the year group together to celebrate their writing. It will take place after pupil workshops, bringing all pupils together for a final celebration, with spoken word performances from the professional writers followed by pupils taking to the stage to share their written pieces authored in the classroom workshops.

 45 minutes

Show SEND adaptations:

Shorter performance, adapted to any sensory needs (e.g. quieter).

About the pupil workshops:

Professional writers will lead creative writing workshops with the chosen classes. Workshops will offer the chance for your pupils to try their hand at prose writing and poetry, with the writers ensuring that there are multiple points of entry for pupils of all abilities.

 1 hour

Workshop SEND adaptations:

Co-planning with teachers to adapt approach. Adjustments to reduce writing (e.g. drawing, spoken word).

Teacher Twilight CPD:

Working with experienced creative writing facilitators, teachers will gain insight into teaching creative writing outside of the restrictions of the curriculum, coming away with useful tips and resources for encouraging creativity in their pupils.

Clowns Without Borders

Clowns Without Borders champions every child's right to creative expression, using the transformative power of the arts to help them heal, learn and thrive. Over the past decade, we've brought joy and laughter to over 100,000 children across 22 countries.

Clowns Without Borders: Piranhas and Bananas

Key Stages:

Reception, Key Stage 1, Key Stage 2, SEND

Relevant areas of the National Curriculum:

PSHE, British values, creativity, wellbeing, healthy lifestyles, environment, developing a growth mindset, pupil voice.

About the show

Piranhas and Bananas is a joyful interactive show which was developed with Rohingya children in Bangladesh in 2019. It's filled with playful storytelling, physical comedy, silly walks, and even sillier noises. Flip Flop is working at Flannagan's Fish Sanctuary. She has great ideas for the vegetarian piranhas, but no one listens. Flip Flop enlists the help of her friends in the audience, proving that even unexpected heroes can make a big difference!

 50 minutes

Show SEND adaptations:

 Shortened and delivered with little to no spoken language. Scripts can be provided in advance to help children and educators.

About the pupil workshops:

Flip Flop is inspired by the imaginative ideas of children. They really helped her out of some tight spots! She believes the world would be better if children were listened to more.

This lively workshop immerses children in playful storytelling and physical comedy, encouraging them to recreate moments from Flip Flop's adventure. It explores who gets to make decisions, what it feels like to be listened to, and how we can listen to one another to help all voices be heard. We'll finish by showcasing the children's ideas on how their voices can be better included in school.

 1 hour

Workshop SEND adaptations:

 Shortening the duration and limiting group sizes to just a few participants.

Teacher Twilight CPD:

Express Your Selfie: This practical CPD guides teachers through creative exercises to boost pupil voice in and out of the classroom. Based on our work with children and insights from our board (ages 6-11), it focuses on engaging children to creatively share their thoughts, challenges, ideas, solutions, and aspirations.

Working with games, stories and movement, teachers will gain a deeper understanding of how to create more meaningful and engaging pupil voice experiences for the children and themselves.

Discover Children's Story Centre: Story Suitcase

Bringing multi-sensory storytelling magic into your classroom to support your pupils' literacy and oracy.

Discover Children's Story Centre

Based in Newham, Discover is the UK's first Story Centre for children aged 0-11 and their families. Working with families, schools and community organisations, we support children's education, skill development and emotional wellbeing through stories and literature.

Discover Children's Story Centre: Story Suitcase

Key Stages:

Reception, Key Stage 1, Key Stage 2, SEND

Relevant areas of the National Curriculum:

Literacy, oracy, PSHE.

About the show

Unfold an interactive storytelling performance in the classroom from a magical Story Suitcase, full of props and sensory items. Guided by one of Discover's expert Story Builders, pupils will be invited to explore a story inspired by much-loved fairy tales. Using multi-sensory elements such as props, music and movement, the session is designed to spark imaginations, encourage participation, and develop an understanding of story structures and building blocks like syntax and vocabulary.

 30 to 45 mins

Show SEND adaptations:

Use of sensory resources, varied session lengths, removal of elements that could cause sensory discomfort such as music or noise making props.

About the pupil workshops:

In the workshop, pupils 'build' their own story, gaining inspiration for their creativity through props and other sensory prompts. The class will be supported to work collaboratively, sharing ideas and listening to others to support speaking and listening development. With an interactive, inclusive approach to literacy, the aim is to improve pupils' understanding of core literacy curriculum elements such as composition, vocabulary, and grammar while inspiring their passion for stories, reading and creative writing.

 1 hour

Workshop SEND adaptations:

Use of sensory items for tactile engagement. Inclusive approaches to literacy teaching that don't rely on reading comprehension and writing ability.

Teacher Twilight CPD:

Through interactive demonstrations and hands-on activities, teachers will explore how to use Discover's inclusive, dynamic approach to teaching literacy, using sensory props, story bags, and structured questioning to bring stories to life. We will guide teachers through a collaborative story-building exercise and support them to extend storytelling into cross-curricular learning, incorporating drama, movement, and discussion.

We will provide teachers with:

- A structured approach to creative storytelling that supports literacy development.
- A practical toolkit to engage pupils of all abilities, including those with SEND and EAL needs.
- Strategies to foster creativity, critical thinking, and communication skills in the classroom.

Emergency Exit Arts: The Curiosity Chest

A creative learning experience of curiosity, storytelling and discovery, building confident voices through oracy.

EEA

EMERGENCY
EXIT ARTS

Emergency Exit Arts

Emergency Exit Arts (EEA) creates bold, transformative outdoor arts and school-based projects that spark curiosity, confidence and creativity. We bring accessible culture to communities and children, empowering them as participants and creators. Through shared artistic experiences, we challenge the ordinary and enrich lives with imagination, wonder and meaningful expression.

Emergency Exit Arts: The Curiosity Chest

Key Stages:

Key Stage 1, Key Stage 2, SEND

Relevant areas of the National Curriculum:

English, writing and speaking, wellbeing, developing a growth mindset, communication in speaking and listening, history and cultural understanding, PSHE, British values, democracy, creativity, pupil voice.

About the show

Unearthed beneath your school, a mysterious chest has reappeared – weathered but intact, and filled with strange artifacts: sharks' teeth, Krobo beads, time-traveling watches and bottled scents from lost worlds.

Believed to be the long-lost Curiosity Chest of 19th century explorer Frances Ann Potts, it arrives with a mission. Her father had urged her to explore the world, to know its people and to take pride in her ancestral roots. Now, your pupils can continue her legacy.

The Curiosity Chest is an immersive storytelling experience. Through live performance and discovery, pupils unlock imagination, become Collectors and celebrate the strange, the beautiful and the extraordinary.

 1 hour

Show SEND adaptations:

Shorter duration for smaller groups, sensory exploration and a calm, supportive atmosphere.

About the pupil workshops:

Following the performance, the adventure continues in the classroom. Led by the Collectors, the workshop invites students to become explorers, historians and storytellers, guiding a new generation in the art of noticing, collecting and wondering. Trained in interpreting oddities and sparking imagination, the Collectors support students in uncovering the chest's secrets through drama, discussion and creative writing. Children investigate artifacts, ask bold questions, and create their own responses, poems, news reports and imaginative tales. This workshop ignites curiosity, celebrates the unusual, and empowers pupils to see the world differently and contribute to Frances Ann's growing legacy as Collectors.

 1 hour

Workshop SEND adaptations:

Shorter session

Teacher Twilight CPD:

The CPD will allow teachers and support staff to explore artifacts, experience the activities their pupils will encounter, and gain practical techniques in drama, storytelling and creative writing. With a focus on inclusive, curiosity-driven learning, the session supports staff in embedding creative literacy across the curriculum for all learners.

Groundswell Arts: The Light Box: Sensory Exploration and Light Play

An interactive STEAM project that encourages children to explore light, reflection, colour, and shadow.

Groundswell ARTS
Growing creative communities

Groundswell Arts

Groundswell Arts facilitates creative arts experiences, giving time and space for children, families, artists, and practitioners to connect and see each other in new ways.

Groundswell Arts: The Light Box: Sensory Exploration and Light Play

Key Stages:

Reception, Key Stage 1, SEND

Relevant areas of the National Curriculum:

Art & design, light and dark, literacy and storytelling, shapes and patterns.

About the show

The Light Box is a purpose-built sensory installation and open-ended interactive environment that gives pupils the time and space to explore light, colour, shapes and shadows through a multi-sensory series of activities and play. Using the EYFS and Key Stage 1 curriculum, this activity enhances learning through creative play and curiosity.

The Light Box: Sensory Exploration and Light Play installation focuses on zones of activities that use a series of stories as prompts for the environments and work areas created.

Please note that for this show, the installation will need to be set up for the entire day so will require a space that can be used without interruptions.

55 minutes

Show SEND adaptations:

Duration of session can be shortened, number of participants in space reduced.

About the pupil workshops:

The class workshop will look at shadow puppetry and will combine both the science curriculum (Light, Shadows, Colours, Shapes and Patterns) with literacy and storytelling through puppets from existing stories or through a child's own imagination.

The workshop will look at different puppet designs. Pupils can explore how opaque and translucent objects affect the light being seen, as well as how distance and light sources can change the shapes and patterns being projected.

1 hour

Workshop SEND adaptations:

Greater focus on play, use of a variety of sensory shadow puppets.

Teacher Twilight CPD:

The twilight session will complement the shadow puppetry work being done in the classroom and will look at different ways to create shadow puppets using a variety of materials. Puppets will include 2D and split pin shadow puppets, acetate and laminate puppets, and the use of wax paper, crayons and oil to create different effects that can be used in the classroom to create characters and develop stories.

LAStheatre: The Littlest Yak

An adaptation of the award-winning book by Lu Fraser and Kate Hindley, with beautiful puppets, catchy tunes and an uplifting tale of self-acceptance.

LAStheatre

LAStheatre is an award-winning theatre company. We produce exceptional arts projects and theatre productions for, and with, communities across the UK. LAS is a word in the Irish language. It means to turn on or set alight. In all our work, we aim to kindle important conversations and ignite imaginations.

LAStheatre: The Littlest Yak

Key Stages:

Reception, Key Stage 1, Key Stage 2, SEND

Relevant areas of the National Curriculum:

Art & design, creativity and learning, PSHE, wellbeing and healthy lifestyles, literacy, English.

About the show

Gertie is great at being THE LITTLEST YAK, with the CURLIEST, WHIRLIEST wool and the GRIPPIEST of hooves for clip-clopping up cliffs. Only, Gertie doesn't want to be the littlest. She's in a rush to grow up and be just like THE BIG YAKS. But what if there are some things that only a GERTIE can do?

LAStheatre bring The Littlest Yak to the stage in spectacular fashion. Join them for a dazzling adventure into the heart of the Himalayas. A gorgeous story celebrating YOU being perfect... just the way you are!

 45 minutes

Show SEND adaptations:

 Shorter, quieter show with additional movement breaks.

About the pupil workshops:

Our workshops focus on using drama games and arts activities to explore the themes of the show and develop confidence, celebrating the things that make each of us unique. Pupils will have an introduction to puppetry and create tabletop puppet characters together.

 1 hour

Workshop SEND adaptations:

 Pupils can respond verbally, by drawing pictures, using communication cards, or by working in partnership with a member of staff.

Teacher Twilight CPD:

In the twilight CPD, we will explore the principles of using play in learning, as well as building on creative skills already familiar to teachers across primary to support different learning outcomes. We will also share flexible and adaptable games that we use in our creative practice and that can be adapted to energise or shake up dull or tricky topics.

This CPD was first developed as part of Creative Connections, a collaboration between LAStheatre and schools across the Isle of Sheppey, delivered in partnership with ICON and The Royal Opera House.

with a fun interactive musical experience led by London Mozart
Players musicians.

LMP
ORCHESTRA

London Mozart Players

London Mozart Players is the oldest, freshest and most adventurous chamber orchestra in the UK. Our mission is to create bold, ambitious and accessible musical experiences for all. London Mozart Players works with schools and music hubs to inspire the next generation of musicians and music lovers.

London Mozart Players: LMP Inspire

Key Stages:

Key Stage 2, SEND

Relevant areas of the National Curriculum:

Music, wellbeing

About the show

Led by world-class musicians from London Mozart Players, this interactive school performance introduces pupils to the world of orchestral music through live demonstrations of different instruments and engaging performances of classical, folk, and pop music. Live demonstrations are accompanied by spoken explanations to highlight connections across genres and to the National Curriculum.

The performance is designed to be fun, educational, and fully inclusive. The session ends with a Q&A, giving children the chance to reflect and ask questions in a fun, supportive musical environment and deepen their understanding.

 45 minutes

Show SEND adaptations:

Shorter duration, sensory exploration.

About the pupil workshops:

The supporting interactive workshops for KS2 pupils explore how music can be used to express feelings and set scenes.

Pupils are introduced to musical elements such as rhythm, pitch and structure through interactive listening, improvising and composition tasks themed around curriculum topics. LMP players work with the class to write and perform their own short piece of music using body percussion and singing, with the option to incorporate current class topics.

 30–45 minutes

Workshop SEND adaptations:

Sensory exploration, non-verbal options for participation, choice-based involvement, shorter tasks.

Teacher Twilight CPD:

The CPD has been designed in consultation with Music Education Hubs and supports teachers in building pupil confidence and skills in composition. The session offers accessible content adaptable for all experience levels, exploring warm-ups, composition and improvisation using poetry, art, and sensory stimuli. The approach links music with class topics, helping pupils express emotions and scenarios through sound. Teachers will leave equipped to embed music across the curriculum and the ability to facilitate group composing and graphic scores.

Mbilla Arts: Routes to Rhythm

Key Stages:

Key Stage 1, Key Stage 2, SEND

Relevant areas of the National Curriculum:

Music, history, geography, physical education, PSHE.

About the show

Led by master drummers from West Africa and accompanied by high-energy dancers, this performance explores the origins of West African music and dance styles, tracing its journey from the African Continent across the Atlantic to the Caribbean and influencing carnival celebrations in the UK today.

The first segment delves into the roots of West African music, showcasing the powerful beats of the djembe drum. As the performance progresses, the narrative shifts to depict the movement of these musical styles showcasing African People's Dance. The interactive call and response elements keep the young audience engaged and excited.

 30 minutes

Show SEND adaptations:

Shortened, with breaks and a slower pace. Sensory adjustments to allow pupils to touch and play with instruments, feel African fabrics and gentle guided movement.

About the pupil workshops:

The supporting workshop includes an opportunity to learn to play the djembe drum and experience the interaction between the drum and the dance. For the first part of the workshop children learn basic drumming patterns on djembe drums and practice call and response with drums.

The second part of the workshop involves step-by-step teaching by experienced dance teachers of African People's Dance accompanied by live drumming. At the end, there is an opportunity for solo performances within the group in an atmosphere of carnival celebration with drumming and Soca music.

 1 hour

Workshop SEND adaptations:

Shortened session and a slower pace. Drumming can be moderated for volume. Movement can be seated or standing.

Teacher Twilight CPD:

The CPD will provide teachers with a concise, engaging introduction to West African music and dance as well as influences on dance styles in the Caribbean and UK, equipping them with practical skills and ideas to integrate into their teaching. The session will include:

- Interactive exercise: call and response with drummer and participants using body percussion and voice.
- Basic djembe technique and learning a rhythm on the drum.
- Introduction to basic dance steps from West Africa and the Caribbean with one of our professional dancers with step-by-step teaching of movements accompanied by live drumming.

The Poetry Society: Poetry Jam Jar

Collaborative, curiosity-driven writing workshops and performances led by professional poets.

THEPOETRYSOCIETY

The Poetry Society

The Poetry Society is the UK's leading poetry organisation. For over 100 years we've been a lively and passionate source of energy and ideas, opening up and promoting poetry to an ever-growing community of people. Our education work creates talent development opportunities for poets, teachers, pupils, and emerging writers.

The Poetry Society: Poetry Jam Jar

Key Stages:

Key Stage 1, Key Stage 2, SEND

Relevant areas of the National Curriculum:

Literacy & English, oracy, resilience, wellbeing.

About the show

In Poetry Jam Jar, poets deliver participatory school workshops that take a collaborative, curiosity-driven and sensory approach to creative writing. Each class generates ideas and lines of poetry in their writing workshops, which are placed in the Poetry Jam Jar.

Afterwards, all the classes come together and the poets select ideas from the jam jar, guiding pupils to join their ideas into a single collaborative poem. The poets lead the pupils to recite the poem chorally. Finally, the poets finish the day by performing their own work, with time for pupils to ask questions.

 45 minutes

Show SEND adaptations:

Flexible performance length, quieter versions.

About the pupil workshops:

For the workshop, a poet will visit each class, equipped with a jam jar. At first, the jar is a source of creative inspiration: it is filled with questions that spark your class's curiosity, short inspirational poems – including poems by young writers – and prompts that encourage them to take notice of the world around them using different senses. Your pupils will learn how to respond to the prompts using imagery and descriptive language, beginning to form ideas for a poem. The jar is then filled with their responses, creating a repository of ingredients for a poem.

 40 to 60 minutes

Workshop SEND adaptations:

Flexible length of workshop, activities are adaptable to different levels of reading and writing ability.

Teacher Twilight CPD:

The CPD session is led by experienced poet facilitators. The session will demonstrate how teachers can use creative writing as a tool for encouraging collaboration and wellbeing, and boost teachers' confidence in bringing poetry into the classroom. The CPD will outline how the offer relates to the curriculum and to wellbeing and will introduce teachers to the methods and resources the poets will use.

SLiDE: Jack & Friends

A joyful dance and music performance and workshops exploring friendship, self-expression, and creativity through movement.

SLiDE

SLiDE

SLiDE is an inclusive dance company that brings people of all ages and abilities together through inclusive, creative dance. We offer workshops, performances, and community projects, fostering connection, confidence, and wellbeing. SLiDE celebrates diversity, enabling everyone to express themselves and experience the joy of dance.

SLIDE: Jack & Friends

Key Stages:

Key Stage 1, Lower Key Stage 2, SEND

Relevant areas of the National Curriculum:

English, maths, physical education, PSHE & citizenship, music, drama, creativity, wellbeing, British values, raising attainment in speaking & listening.

About the show

Jack & Friends is an interactive dance performance celebrating friendship, belonging, and the joy of movement. Inspired by Jack's love of musicals, pantomimes and Strictly Come Dancing, the show blends storytelling, original music, and vibrant choreography. A relaxed, inclusive atmosphere invites all pupils to engage and move, culminating in a fun disco finale (optional depending on the school). Performed by a diverse cast, including a dancer with a learning disability, it champions self-expression and inclusivity.

 40 minutes for performance, 20 minutes for the disco.

Show SEND adaptations:

Designed for relaxed engagement, shorter duration, increased sensory elements, quieter sections, visual and auditory cues to support accessibility.

About the pupil workshops:

The workshops will build on the performance themes through fun, accessible dance activities. Pupils engage in interactive games, learn a 'Strictly' duet, create motifs about their favourite things, and explore movement through sensory tasks (rain, reflection). Workshops support storytelling, social interaction, and emotional expression, fostering creativity, confidence, and collaboration. Live and recorded original music enhances the experience, making learning dynamic and engaging.

 1 hour

Workshop SEND adaptations:

Sessions can be shorter with regular breaks, use sensory props and provide quieter or calmer moments.

Teacher Twilight CPD:

This practical CPD explores how to use dance to foster inclusion and engagement across the curriculum. Teachers experience movement activities first-hand and learn adaptable choreography, basic Laban dance principles, and storytelling through dance. Emphasis is placed on supporting SEND and neurodiverse pupils through props, sensory-friendly approaches, and inclusive facilitation. Teachers will leave with confidence, creative ideas, and tools to integrate movement into daily teaching, benefiting pupil wellbeing.

GO & SEE

Go & See

The Primary Arts Go & See programme gives pupils and staff the opportunity to experience the arts within venues across London rather than at school, through trips that include theatre, film, visual art, museums and heritage. The programme aims to support pupils' personal enjoyment, wellbeing and enrichment through the arts. It also aims to support teachers to connect these experiences to classroom learning through light-touch CPD and resources.

The programme has two seasons: Winter 2025 and Summer 2026.

For the WINTER season, schools can apply for tickets for a year group (or smaller group of pupils) to a choice of five different theatre productions, and one immersive art installation. These events all take place during December 2025.

For the SUMMER season, schools will be able to apply for tickets to theatre, visual art, film, museum and heritage opportunities. The Summer season will open for bookings in February 2026, with full details available in January 2026. These events will take place in June and July 2026.

Access & Inclusion

An access budget is available to support participant engagement in this programme, for example, we may be able to support with transport, additional staff or other costs. We will provide a Visual Story for each participating venue. Access information for venues is included in the offer descriptions below.

Eligibility

Primary Arts is open to all state primary mainstream and special schools in London.

Your school must be in a London borough to be eligible for the programme. If your school or a member of your school staff is participating in another area of the Primary Arts programme, you are still eligible to make a booking request for this strand of the programme.

We will prioritise schools that have not previously benefitted from this programme strand. If you participated in the Go & See programme in 2023/24 or 2024/25, you may not be allocated a place on the programme this year. However, you are still welcome to make a booking request.

How to Make a Booking Request

Please read the offer descriptions carefully on the pages that follow and consider your school's needs and areas of interest. For theatre productions, please identify your first and second choice of offer. You can apply for offers in more than one artform (i.e. if you apply for theatre, you may also apply for visual art), but you can also apply for a single artform only.

Each description includes Key Stage suitability. Please ensure the offer you are interested in is appropriate for the year group you would like to participate.

Check your travel before you book: Please carefully consider the location of your chosen venue, the distance from your school and the feasibility of travelling to and from it. All offers will begin promptly at the given start time so your group must be able to arrive in good time.

It is your school's responsibility to arrange transport – free travel on public transport for schools can be booked through the TfL School Party Travel Scheme and must be booked at least 14 days in advance.

Go & See bookings that are cancelled due to travel plans are likely to incur a cancellation charge.

When you are ready to make a booking request, please log in to the Primary Arts booking platform, select Go & See, and complete the booking request form. The form asks for practical information and should take around 10 to 15 minutes to complete. Booking requests for the Winter 2025 season should be submitted by 5pm on Friday 3 October 2025.

You will be contacted by Wednesday 15 October to confirm whether we are able to offer you tickets. If offered tickets, you will then have one week to accept your allocation and complete our School Agreement for your booking to be confirmed.

Please note that while the Go & See programme is free of charge to schools, we may charge a fee of up to £300 per class for cancellations with less than three weeks' notice (excluding school holidays).

If you have any questions about Primary Arts, Go & See, please email schools@anewdirection.org.uk using 'Primary Arts Go & See' in the subject line.

Little Angel Theatre: The Storm Whale

A magical Christmas show about friendship, family, and courage, brought to life with puppetry, music, and storytelling.

Little Angel Theatre

Little Angel Theatre has used puppetry to create and share inspiring stories since opening its doors in 1961, igniting the imaginations of the youngest minds. The theatre's success has been built upon a spirit of artistic innovation. We are committed to pushing the boundaries of what puppetry can be, whilst preserving its heritage.

Little Angel Theatre: The Storm Whale

Key Stage/s:

Reception, Key Stage 1, Lower Key Stage 2 (Years 3 & 4), SEND.

About the show

Benji Davies' tender and heart-warming stories of loneliness, love and courage are brought to life in one magical piece of theatre this Christmas. Written and Directed by Matt Aston, The Storm Whale is based on Benji Davies' award winning books The Storm Whale and The Storm Whale in Winter. This uplifting adaptation combines puppetry, original songs and dialogue to engage young audiences in the magic of theatre.

The story follows Noi, who lives with his dad and six cats by the sea. One summer, while his dad was busy at work, Noi rescued a little whale that washed up on the beach. A friendship began that changed their lives forever. The following winter his dad takes one last trip in his fishing boat. Noi is alone once more and longs to see his friend again. Will it take another storm to bring them back together?

MASTERCLASSES

Masterclasses

The Primary Arts Masterclasses programme offers a series of six full day CPD sessions delivered by creative literacy experts at the Centre for Literacy in Primary Education (CLPE). Each CPD session offers a stand-alone day of teacher development designed to support participants to explore and develop creative teaching approaches to a range of priorities around reader development.

The programme is designed so that each CPD session provides a comprehensive exploration of its topic and does not require participants to have attended any other sessions.

Participants at each session will:

- Hear from an expert advisory teacher from CLPE in partnership with a high-profile children's author/illustrator.
- Work with peers to explore and develop creative approaches to literacy and reader development.
- Receive at least two high-quality book to take away.
- Take away teaching plans and resources to use in the classroom.
- Be invited to an exclusive twilight session following the Masterclass, giving you the opportunity to explore the library and connect with peers, with drinks and snacks provided.

Access & Inclusion

These Masterclasses will take an inclusive approach and are suitable for teachers working in primary mainstream and SEND settings.

The CLPE venue is accessible, with step free access, accessible toilets, and parking. An access budget is available to support participant engagement in this programme, for example for transport, BSL interpretation or other costs.

Eligibility

Primary Arts Masterclasses are aimed at qualified teachers currently working at any level in state primary mainstream and special schools in London. The programme is designed to support teachers working with pupils in all year groups from Reception to Year 6.

Your school must be in a London borough to be eligible for the programme.

If your school or a member of your school staff is participating in another area of the Primary Arts programme, you are still eligible to take part in this strand of the programme.

Schools can book up to three Masterclass sessions per year. Places are limited to two participants per school for any given session. If sessions are oversubscribed, priority will be given to schools that have not previously benefitted from the Masterclasses programme (i.e. in 2023/24 or 2024/25).

How to Book

There are 30 places available at each Masterclass. You are welcome to book to attend more than one Masterclass but each must be booked separately. Schools can book up to three Masterclass sessions this academic year. If colleagues from your school are already booked to attend other sessions, this may limit what you can book.

Participants must book their own place. Places cannot be booked on behalf of colleagues.

Booking opens on Wednesday 10 September 2025 and will be on a first come, first served basis. Please book your place using the Primary Arts booking platform.

Please note that while these Masterclasses are free of charge, we may charge your school a fee of £150 per participant for no-shows or cancellations with less than three weeks' notice (excluding school holidays).

If you have any questions about the Primary Arts Masterclasses, please email schools@anewdirection.org.uk using 'Primary Arts Masterclasses' in the subject line.

CLPE

The CLPE is a UK-based charity. We support schools to teach literacy creatively and effectively, enabling children to read and write for purpose and for pleasure. We provide professional development and resources and conduct research into all areas of literacy, using findings to inform practice and contribute to national and international perspectives.

Masterclass 1: Building 'Reading for Pleasure' Schools

Supporting schools to understand why and how to develop a meaningful 'reading for pleasure' culture.

Suitable for:

Class teachers (EYFS–KS2, SEND), English Subject Leads, Senior Leadership.

Relevant areas of the National Curriculum:

Language and vocabulary, oracy, reading, writing personal, social, emotional development.

Date: Thursday 13 November 2025

Time: 9am to 3.30pm
(or until 5pm for optional networking)

Venue: Centre for Literacy in Primary Education, 44 Webber Street, London SE1 8QW (map).

Venue accessibility: Step free access, accessible toilets and accessible parking.

Description of session:

Explore a range of approaches designed to increase children's motivation to read with a greater depth of understanding, leading to increased engagement and attainment across your school. We will focus on managing reading areas to make stock accessible, developing children's self-selection and independence in reading and foster a love of reading in the school community.

1 day (9am to 3.30pm)

Detail of activity:

This Masterclass will be delivered by an expert advisory teacher from CLPE in partnership with award-winning children's author S.F. Said. It will support teachers and leaders to plan for increased engagement and attainment in reading across the primary years.

We will explore:

- The breadth of research that connects reading for pleasure with reading attainment,
- The role of all adults in school as readers, creating a culture in which children can be influenced to read widely and for pleasure,
- Creative teaching approaches that give all children access to high quality texts.

Key areas of focus:

- What do we mean by Reading for Pleasure?
- The importance of a rich knowledge of children's literature and the role of teacher as reader, within a community of readers.
- Getting to know your children as readers, their interests and fascinations, their development, skills and understanding as readers, and draw on this to support the development of effective provision and practice.
- A greater understanding of what progression and development in reading looks like and the connection between reading identity and reading attainment.

Description of session:

Enhance your knowledge and understanding of how to use traditional tales and oral storytelling techniques across all Primary Key Stages to increase children's motivation and attainment in spoken language and in writing.

1 day (9am to 3.30pm)

Detail of activity:

This Masterclass will be delivered by an expert advisory teacher from CLPE in partnership with the award-winning and acclaimed storyteller Jan Blake. It will support participants to enhance their knowledge and understanding of how to use oral storytelling techniques and traditional tales across all Primary Key Stages to increase children's motivation, confidence and attainment across literacy provision.

We will explore:

- How storytelling can be integrated into the primary curriculum in ways that increase children's comprehension of language and engage children in deeper reading response.
- How traditional tales can be used to develop children's own use of language as well as a clear understanding of narrative structure.
- The value of storytelling to improve pupil confidence, engagement, language and vocabulary development, leading to independent writing behaviours – in line with the requirements of the Early Years Foundation Framework and National Curriculum.

Key areas of focus:

- Why storytelling is an important element of the primary provision for all children.
- Understanding the importance of all forms of traditional tales as a vital part of children's reading experiences across all primary years.
- Explore the importance and value of personal narrative.
- Develop an understanding of the ways in which storytelling and traditional tales provide knowledge of the initial building blocks of narrative (and later of a wider range of narrative arcs) to support children's confidence and independence in shaping whole narratives of their own.
- Consider and practice a range of techniques to engage audience orally.
- Explore approaches which support remembering, understanding and telling stories.
- Develop an understanding of how language can be used for effect, including language structures and choice of vocabulary.
- Consider how to find and choose stories to tell and use with children across the primary age phase.

Takeaway:

- Participants will receive a high-quality children's book for each primary phase (EYFS, KS1, KS2), as well as associated teaching sequences of detailed planning to support the implementation of the ideas from the day and to inspire creative and meaningful practice in their own classrooms and schools.

Description of session:

Enhance your knowledge and understanding of how to choose and use picture books across all Primary Key Stages to increase children's motivation and attainment as independent readers and writers.

1 day (9am to 3.30pm)

Detail of activity:

This Masterclass will be delivered by an expert advisory teacher from CLPE in partnership with author and illustrator, Daishu Ma. It will enhance participants' knowledge and understanding of how to choose and use picture books to increase children's motivation and attainment as independent readers and writers.

We will explore:

- How well-chosen picture books can increase children's comprehension of language and engage children in deeper response.
- Authentic and meaningful approaches to the writing process, to improve pupils' independent writing, engagement and attainment.
- How school leaders can build a spine of picture book texts that could be included in a rich, progressive Primary English Curriculum.

Key areas of focus:

- Understanding the importance of picture books as a vital part of children's reading experiences across the primary years.
- How to closely read illustration, developing visual literacy skills.
- Investigating approaches to develop children's inference, deduction and to be critically reflective about a text and its impact on the reader.
- How to convey meaning in words and illustrations of their own, investigating the impact of drawing as a means of communicating and sharing ideas.
- How to teach children the building blocks of narrative by exploring a wide range of high-quality picture books.
- Examples of creative teaching approaches that support children's engagement with and understanding of narrative.
- How to support children in creating, shaping, developing and publishing their own narratives using words and pictures following the authentic process of a practicing writer.
- How to embed creative practices across your school to develop children's engagement and attainment in reading and writing.

Takeaway:

- Participants in this Masterclass will receive two carefully-selected picture book texts, along with detailed teaching plans for each age phase to allow that text to be taught across a school. They will also have access to a suite of video resources to support teachers to use the book and develop children's independent writing back in their own classrooms.

COME & TRY

Come & Try

The Primary Arts Come & Try programme offers a series of six evening twilight sessions delivered by the Crafts Council, the national charity for craft.

Each twilight offers a stand-alone evening of creativity, peer conversations and refreshments. They are designed to support playful exploration, reimagining craft for the classroom as well as for personal enjoyment and enrichment.

No prior experience is needed for any of these sessions, which will be suitable for complete beginners as well as for those interested in rekindling past interests. We aim for these sessions to be fun, supportive and enjoyable, as well as beneficial to your creative classroom practice.

Participants at each session will:

- Work with craft educators.
- Gain confidence in the use of craft.
- Enjoy conversations with peers over drinks and snacks.
- Take away resources to use in the classroom and craft materials to practice with.

Access & Inclusion

These twilights will take an inclusive approach and are suitable for teachers, Teaching Assistants and any support or admin staff working in primary mainstream and SEND settings. An access budget is available to support participant engagement in this programme, for example for transport, BSL interpretation or other costs.

Eligibility

Primary Arts Come & Try twilights are aimed at staff working in any role in state primary mainstream and special schools in London. This may include teachers, Teaching Assistants, SENDCos, support staff, and admin staff. The programme is designed to support your own personal enjoyment and enrichment through the arts, as well as supporting learning.

Your school must be in a London borough to be eligible for the programme.

If your school or a member of your school staff is participating in another area of the Primary Arts programme, you are still eligible to take part in this strand of the programme. Places will be limited to two participants per school for any given session.

How to Book

There are 25 places available at each Come & Try twilight. You are welcome to book to attend more than one session. However, each session must be booked separately. Come & Try will open for booking on Wednesday 10 September and will be available on a first-come, first-served basis.

Please book your place using the booking links given in the session descriptions on the pages that follow. If your chosen Go & See session is fully booked, you will be able to join the waiting list.

Please note that while these sessions are free of charge to attend, please let us know at least three working days in advance if you can no longer attend and cancel your booking on the booking platform so that your place can be offered to someone else.

If you have any questions about the Primary Arts Come & Try twilight sessions, please email schools@anewdirection.org.uk and put 'Primary Arts Come & Try' in the subject line.

Crafts Council

Crafts Council

The Crafts Council is the national charity for craft. We inspire making, empower learning and nurture craft businesses. We believe craft skills and knowledge enrich and uplift us as individuals, and, in doing so, will change our world for the better.

We promote life-long learning in craft, working closely with our networks to secure the future of craft in the classroom and support learning nationwide.

Come & Try: Surface Values with Kim Chin

Create your own attuned visual language through found objects and collagraph printing.

Suitable for: All school staff

Date: Tuesday 25 November 2025

Time: 5pm - 7pm

Venue: Crafts Council Gallery, 44a Pentonville Road, London N1 9BY (map)

Venue accessibility: Step free access, accessible toilets

Description of session:

Come and join us at the Crafts Council Gallery for a fun and relaxed evening with transdisciplinary artist-facilitator-curator-organiser Kim Chin, who uses making as a tool for self-discovery, connection, and inspiring agency. They use absence and dissonance as a site for imagination and transformation, while integrating neurodivergent adaptations in cultural, education and community spaces.

The benefits of the workshops include a holistic approach to creativity, a friendly space to experiment and take risks, dedicated slow-down time to attune self-awareness, connect and build networks. You will learn different textile techniques, create a new memory manifested in their textile keep sake.

Detail of activity:

Through different prompts and creative demos, you will reflect on a symbol or pattern that brings you joy and grounding, and translate that onto fabric using texture, colour, form and words.

Different mediums include experimenting with collagraph printing, creating "beads", "sequins" and 3D embellishment made from upcycled fabric off-cuts, threads, paper, old magazines and everyday upcycled materials like cardboard that can be easily sourced from home. There will be a sharing and closing exercise at the end of the session.

Come & Try: Nature's Palette: Dye, Paint, Twist, Create with Alice Burnhope

Explore natural dyeing, painting and rope-making using ancient skills and contemporary creativity.

Suitable for: All school staff

Date: Tuesday 12 May 2026

Time: 5pm - 7pm

Venue: Crafts Council Gallery, 44a Pentonville Road, London N1 9BY (map)

Venue accessibility: Step free access, accessible toilets

Description of session:

Come and join us in the Crafts Council Gallery for a fun and relaxed evening with award-winning sustainable textile artist Alice Burnhope. This playful and sensory workshop blends ancient and contemporary craft practices to inspire ways of making in the classroom.

With sustainability at its core, in this session participants will explore accessible, hands-on textile techniques that connect creativity with nature. The session supports creative confidence and wellbeing while offering simple, practical ideas to take back into the school setting. No experience needed—just curiosity and joy in learning through touch, colour, and collaboration!

Detail of activity:

Together, we'll explore the contemporary natural dyeing process of bundle dye, painting with handmade natural dye inks, and transforming dyed fabrics into vibrant, tactile rope. This ancient method of rope-making is accessible and engaging; perfect for collaborative classroom projects. Participants will leave with their own painted samples, dyed fabric, handmade decoration, and ink pots to take back to their schools.

You'll also gain fresh ideas for reusing textiles, working with natural materials, and embedding sustainability into creative learning.

Come & Try: Make New Forms with Metal , with Jacky Oliver

Learn from jeweller-turned-sculptor Jacky Oliver, working with metal to explore forms and ideas.

Suitable for: All school staff

Date: Tuesday 7 July 2026

Time: 5pm - 7pm

Venue: Crafts Council Gallery, 44a Pentonville Road, London N1 9BY (map)

Venue accessibility: Step free access, accessible toilets

Description of session:

Come and join us in the Crafts Council Gallery for a fun and relaxed evening with maker and metalwork artist Jacky Oliver. Using a mix of metal, wire, and other materials, you'll have a chance to 'make first' and explore your creativity through sculpture.

Jacky creates sculptural pieces that combine the heaviness of blacksmithing with the refinement and delicacy of jewellery work. Jacky's work combines composition using line, space and shadows with work that tells a story and sparks conversation. You'll use a range of metal pieces, wire, and off cuts to bring your ideas to life. Take part for your own enrichment, while also learning how to use your new-found skills to support classroom learning.

Detail of activity:

Get creative using the everyday material of metal. You'll have a chance to apply Crafts Council's Make First pedagogy: diving straight into making and using materials to develop your ideas. You'll then work with Jacky to create and refine your ideas, learning some of the techniques she uses in her work.

In this fun and enriching workshop, participants will experience working responsively with materials and create a unique decorative object that they can take home.
